Mr. Blauvelt read letters from Lexow & Jenkins in regard to proposed ordinances licensing junk dealers and pin ball machines.

An ordinance to license junk dealers and dealers in second-hand articles and prescribing the conditions an applicant must comply with in order to receive and hold such a license was read to the Board and on motion of Charles Eberling, seconded by B.Otto Jacobsen, it was

RESOLVED, that a public hearing on said proposed ordinance be held at the office of the Town Clerk in New City, Rockland County, New York, on the 13th day of March, 1939, at 2:00 o'clock P. M.;

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Town Clerk be and she hereby is directed to give notice of a public hearing on said proposed ordinance by publishing the same once, in the "Journal-News", a daily newspaper published in the Village of Nyack, Rockland County, New York, and having a general circulation in the Town of Clarkstown, specifying the time when and place where such public hearing will be held, which publication shall be at least eleven (11) days prior to the date of such hearing;

FURTHER RESOLVED, that said proposed ordinance is as follows, viz:

AN ORDINANCE

to license junk dealers and dealers in second-hand articles and prescribing the conditions an applicant must comply with in order to receive and hold such a license.

ARTICLE I.

The Town Board of the Town of Clarkstown, County of Rockland and State of New York, hereby ordains, enacts and publishes as follows:

Section 1. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, association, partnership or corporation to engage in the business of buying or selling old metal, junk, or other second-hand articles anywhere within the Town of Clarkstown without first having obtained a license so to do from the Town Clerk of the Town of Clarkstown, which license shall run from January 1st to December 31st and shall cost the sum of Five ($5.00) Dollars per year.

Section 2. Where a junk dealer operates more than one vehicle in connection with such business, a separate license will have to be obtained and a separate license fee paid for each vehicle so operated.

Section 3. No license shall be issued to a person who has heretofore been convicted of a crime or a violation of Article VI of the General Business Law.

Section 4. Each license will be separately numbered and upon receiving a license each applicant will be required to display the number of such license in a prominent position upon the vehicle for which the license has been issued and to carry said license with him at all times.

Section 5. As a condition of receiving such license each applicant must agree to record in a book the date of purchase, the time and place of purchase and the name and address of the person from whom each article is purchased.

Where a junk dealer operates a junk yard a record book must be kept for that yard, which will remain continually at the yard and will record, as above set forth, all purchases made thereat.

Where a junk dealer operates one or more vehicles a record book must be kept for and carried on each vehicle, which will remain continually on such vehicle and will record, as above set forth, all purchases made through the operator of said vehicle.

All record books must be open to inspection by any police officer at all reasonable times. It will not be necessary for any junk dealer to preserve such records of purchases after the lapse of two years from the time the purchase took place.

ARTICLE II

Penalty

Section 1. A violation of this ordinance is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed Fifty ($50.00) Dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 2. Any person, firm or corporation violating this ordinance shall incur a civil penalty of Five ($5.00) Dollars a day for each day each vehicle is operated in violation of this ordinance within the Town of Clarkstown, outside of an incorporated village.

Section 3. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent, waive or supersede the right of the Town Board to compel compliance with or to restrain by injunction, the violation of this ordinance, notwithstanding the fact that the violator may have been convicted of a misdemeanor hereunder or may have paid a fine or penalty for such violation.

Section 4. In addition to all other remedies and powers prescribed herein, the Town Board shall have power, upon proof of the violation of this ordinance, to suspend or revoke a license heretofore issued to the offender.

ARTICLE III

In Effect

Section 1. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.
